JUDGE M'ILVAINE GRANTS REHEARING ON LICENSES

Breweries of Washington Claim Court was Inconsistent in Rulings

EVIDENCE ABOUT THE SAME

Decisions Still Unchanged—Every Argument Met with Well Considered Reasons

On petition of the attorneys of the three breweries at Washington that were refused license, Judge J. A. McIlvaine granted a rehearing on the case Saturday afternoon. The breweries were represented by Attorneys T. F. Birch, A. B. Braden and Norman Clark. The points advanced for a reconsideration of the refusals were that the court was inconsistent in its rulings. It was stated that seven wholesalers had applied for license, two of which were granted and five refused, when the evidence was the same in about each case. The attorneys stated that if the court would reconsider its decision and grant licenses to the breweries the latter would "be good," and cut out their sales distributing agencies. It was also inferred that the court had been unduly biased by certain newspaper reports, and that being a total abstainer unconsciously influenced the decisions.

To all these the court listened attentively, and met each and every point with well considered legal reasons. Complaint was also made that the opinion of the court was so drawn that it left no legal points on which an appeal could be made. Judge McIlvaine replied that he would in his final decree give ample opportunity to carry the cases up to the appellate court, and suggested that the three breweries could still withdraw their applications and take out State licenses.

The attorneys replies that there was no profit in this, and stated that heavy losses would be entailed on the investors if the breweries were to remain idle for a year. To this the court replied that investors in brewery properties must know there are laws governing the manufacture and sale of the product, and that if these laws were violated the license privilege was liable to be revoked. A reconsideration of the decree was refused. The application for the Bentleyville brewery was withdrawn with the avowed intention of taking out a State license, and this course will probably be followed by the Independent brewery of Monongahela.

To the Voters of Charleroi.

There has been a report circulated in Charleroi that if I am elected justice of the peace, I would resign in order that another could be appointed. To the voters of Charleroi I wish to say that this report is absolutely false that I am a candidate for myself, and if elected will administer the affairs of said office to the best of my ability and in strict accordance with the law.

John Jenkins.

To the Public

Police Make Five Arrests Saturday

Vesta Man Gets Loaded and Tries to Regulate Police Force

There were five arrests made by the police on Saturday night for drunkenness, disorderly conduct, and fighting, the burgess' office being enriched in fines and costs to the extent of $27.52. A man by the name of Hancock from Vesta came to town, and filling up with joy juice, tried to regulate the police force, when his friends were requested to take him home, and as a result was pulled by Chief of Police Albright and Officer Alva Osborne. He was fined $1.00 and costs for disorderly conduct.

LOOK FOR SPIRITED CONTEST

Much Interest Centers in Race for Justice of the Peace

FIGHT FOR SCHOOL BOARD

The election Tuesday in Charleroi for the various borough offices bears indications of being somewhat spirited, because of the good men that are out for the various offices. In all possibility the closest contest will be for school director, although the office of justice of the peace, and the seats in council may furnish some warm fights.

There are four candidates for office of justice of the peace, which is the most important office to be filled. These are John Jenkins, Chagny G. Collins, R. P. Fitzgerald and Joseph Foss. Jenkins is the Republican nominee and Fitzgerald the Democrat, while Collins is running Independent and Foss on the Citizens ticket.

For school director G. B. Neelson and Charles Walgren are the Republican nominees and Fred Cooper and N. W. Patton are the Democratic candidates. On account of the prominence of these four men a warm fight is anticipated.

Dr. A. O. Davis and A. H. Furlong are the Republican nominees for council and William Richey is the Democratic nominee. It is a guess as to which two of these will pull out successfully. Wm. Lambert the other Democratic nominee for council has withdrawn.

George Dawson is the Republican candidate for assessor. J. G. Albright is the Republican nominee for auditor and John Jobs the Democratic candidate.

KINNEY TRIAL POSTPONED UNTIL MAY TERM OF COURT

Charleroi Man is Struck by Train

Has Limb Fractured and is Otherwise Wounded About the Body

Stephen Shumer, a trackman on the local division, P. R. R., sustained a fractured leg and a number of bruises about the body by being struck by an engine running light, at Dunlevy Sunday morning. Shumer was working on the tracks, clearing away the snow, when the engine, on a siding, came along. He stepped aside, but not far enough and was struck. He was removed to the Memorial hospital at Monongahela where attention was given. The injury is said not to be serious.

SPORTSMEN WANT QUAIL PROTECTED

Ask Farmers to Assist, and Promises Them Compensation If They Do So

LAW PERMITS TRAPPING

A movement is on foot among the hunters and sportsmen of Charleroi for the protection of quail during the hard winter season, in which aid has been asked of the farmers and landholders in the vicinity. This has been one of the hardest winters on these game birds that has been known for many seasons, and has been the result of a great decrease in the flocks.

The plan on foot is to have the farmers either trap and feed the quail, or feed them in the open, for which work they will be fully compensated. At present the heavy snow prevents the quail from feeding off the ground and foraging as usual in winter and coveys have been known to starve to death. Farmers are permitted by law to trap and take care of quail during the winter season or are permitted to trap them and place them in charge of sportsmen, for which they are entitled to compensation.

Any farmer or land-holder trapping any quail and not desiring to take care of them will confer a favor upon local sportsmen and be entitled to compensation by communicating the fact to the Mail, or any person seeing quail may by informing the Mail secure proper payment.

BANKS CLOSED ON ELECTION DAY AND FOLLOWING TUESDAY

The Charleroi banks will be closed all day Election Day, and on the following Tuesday, Washington's Birthday. Saturday, the anniversary of Lincoln's birthday, is really a bank holiday, but it was not observed on account of the date falling upon Saturday. It is seldom that the banks are closed two Tuesdays in succession.

Attorney Harry Williams for Defendant Asks for Continuance?

NO OBJECTION IS FILED

Reason for Request is From the Inability of Material Witnesses to be Present

The murder case against Thomas Kinney of Charleroi, who is charged with the killing of William Adams here the first part of December, was this morning continued until the May term of court on account of the inability of material witnesses to be present at this time.

The case was called this morning by the court, whereupon Attorney Harry Williams, representing Kinney, made a motion that the case be postponed until the May term.

He stated as the chief and only reason the fact that material witnesses upon whom there much depended could not appear at this time.

There was no objection upon the part of the Commonwealth, and the case was declared postponed by the court. There are twenty witnesses, upon the case from Charleroi.

PLAN TO TAKE SLED LOAD OF ROOTERS

The second basketball game of the series of five between Brownsville and the Charleroi Colonials for the championship of the upper Monongahela valley will be played at the Brownsville rink on Friday night of this week. It is the intention of the team if the snow is on and sledding is good to go cross country, and take a number of rooters with them. Anyone who thus wants to go should notify Manager Riggs, or leave word at the Colonial pool room.

Funeral of Mrs. Carl E. Gibson Held Today

The funeral of Mrs. Carl E. Gibson of Monongahela was held from the late home this afternoon at 2 o'clock, the services being conducted by Rev. C. L. McKee of the Presbyterian church. Interment was in the Monongahela cemetery. I. O. Wycoff and family of Charleroi were in Monongahela this afternoon to attend the funeral.

To the Public.

In view of the fact that the local journeyman barber's union compelled the master barbers of Charleroi to sign a scale formulated by them increasing the price of shaving to 15 cents, and imposing other terms, I desire to state that such proceeding was unwarranted. I had already signed a yearly agreement with Local No. 20 of Pittsburgh for one year, ending May 1. Correspondence with the International secretary reveals the fact that the local union had no right to make such a demand while the other agreement was in existence. Therefore my shop will be conducted the same as heretofore until the other agreement expires.

Voters, Turn Out.

Tomorrow is the municipal election, when officers are elected to administer the borough and school affairs. As the Mail has previously stated, this is important to every citizen within the borough, as the councilmen and school directors elected will levy, collect and disburse jointly in the neighborhood of $80,000 during the ensuing year. This alone should be sufficient cause for every voter to turn out and cast his ballot at the election tomorrow.

Local elections are not held for voters to favor and honor a fellow-citizen who seeks a public office. Instead they are for the purpose of selecting public servants. That being the case it is purely a question of ability, honesty and integrity. These are the qualifications the voters of Charleroi should insist upon, and if a full vote is registered the result will be the sentiment of the people, which is the final arbiter in popular government. A small vote does not reflect the will of the people.

A Blessing in Disguise

While it has been the occasion of more or less personal discomfort as well as considerable local inconvenience the heavy precipitation of snow this winter is exactly what was needed throughout the State. It may not be generally known that during the past two years a general drought has prevailed, which has not only seriously affected crops but was beginning to injure the forests. Reports from some sections of the State were to the effect that last summer the moist air had receded from the earth to a greater depth than was ever before known. It will be remembered that the summer of 1908 was unusually dry, and that the fall of snow the succeeding winter was light. It fell on dry ground and went away without rains, so that little moisture was added to the subterranean springs and water currents. Last summer the rain fell while not so light as the preceding summer, was still below the average, and there were no fall rains of any account for the thirsty earth to absorb.

Now, with the heavy rainfalls during the winter, and the unusually heavy fall of snow, the damage caused by lack of moisture will be repaired. Before the snow disappears certain communities may suffer by reason of floods, but the general effect will be beneficial. The snow is a blessing in disguise.

License a Privilege.

The opinion of Judge J. A. McIlvaine written in connection with his license court decisions is a most comprehensive exposition of the license laws governing Pennsylvania. Some of the most salient points deducted therefrom is that a license to dispense intoxicating liquors is a privilege, granted at the discretion of the court, but tolerated by the people of the community in which it is granted, and that the power of the court in this matter is discretionary and not arbitrary. A few of the pertinent features of the opinion are quoted as follows:

"The free and excessive use of intoxicating liquors has long been recognized as injurious to individuals, to society and to the State.

"The judge who presides at a license is given discretion in determining who, if any, shall receive a license from among those who apply for the same. But it is a judicial and not an arbitrary discretion.

"A person who applies for a license as a hotel keeper should have a hotel, it should be hotel in truth and in fact, a public house where strangers and travelers can be comfortably entertained.

"A wholesale dealer's license should not be granted where there is no wholesale trade with retailers and where there are retail licenses sufficient to supply the retail trade. It is true that one receiving a wholesale dealer's license can sell to consumers, but that business should be merely incidental to the principal business.

Brownsville has been put in the same class as Uniontown, because it has not sporting blood enough to bear defeat in a basketball game without blaming it on the referee.

Throwing snow off roofs is sometimes more dangerous to other people than getting to the right hand side of a trolley sweeper, when it's removing snow from the tracks.

With the Ohio, Monongahela and Youghiogheny rivers all improved, Western Pennsylvania can afford to feel somewhat upish.

Every time there is a heavy fall of snow, or an unusual storm, a Pittsburgh newspaper is bound to find out that all records are broken for as far back as the oldest employe in the office can remember.

The man whose wife insists upon kissing him ten minutes every morning before he goes to work and every evening when he comes home, ought to be entitled to a divorce and alimony.

Matchmaking in Paris seems to be a remarkably good business when rich unmarried Americans are to be found.

Brownsville is going to be the center of the suffrage movement, if it can. To take advantage of time and step on opportunity's forelock it is going to have a wonderful debate on the question, "Why Women Should Vote," or some topic of sufficient interest. We hope they get the front seats filled.

They will receive sentence during the present term of court.

Homemade Ink.

A good ink is made in this way: Bruise half a pound of nutgalls and stand in one quart of water, shaking it now and then, for about four hours. Then add three ounces and a half of gum arabic and when it is quite dissolved three ounces of copperas. To prevent the ink from becoming moldy when kept add three or four drops of cresote. This gives a pleasant-like smell to the ink and does not corrode the pens as chloride of mercury would do.

NORTH CHARLEROI ANTICIPATES GOOD FIGHT FOR OFFICES

Warm Contest Booked for Election Day in Neighboring Borough.

There promises to be a nice contest for election to the offices of council, school director and justice of the peace at North Charleroi tomorrow. In council the retiring members are S. A. Walton, who was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of S. L. Woodward, and David Schafer. Mr. Schafer is a candidate to succeed himself.

Those who are out for the places on both the Republican and Democratic tickets are: Council—Republican, David Schafer and John Cope; Democratic—John Meyers and A. T. Linn. School director—Republican, Bowman Horn and I. N. Kibler; Democratic—Anderson Caseber, and W. H. Craft; justice of the peace, R. L. Culbertson, Republican, Lewis Cooper, Democratic.

PAUL JONES' PROMISE.

Our Great Naval Hero and the Duchess of Chartres.

The Duchess of Chartres was an enthusiast in the cause of American liberty and a warm friend of its great naval champion, Paul Jones, whom she nicknamed the "Curious Knight of the Sea." The duchess was a noble princess and a very great lady, and Captain Jones was a sailor, self educated and the son of a Scotch gardener, but in the exchange of gifts and compliments which, according to the custom of the day in France attended their friendship, he was not to be outshone.

At a luncheon which she gave just before he sailed from France in the Ranger on that famous cruise of his which carried the war to the very shore of Britain it was the good fortune of Paul Jones to share in a conversation touching a French naval engagement in which the grandfather of the duchess had borne a conspicuous part and to defend and explain maneuvers on that occasion, showing a knowledge of every ship and every captain engaged and winning on the spot the ardent personal adherence of Mme. de Chartres.

At the close of the feast she presented him a valuable watch which had been her grandfather's. Taken by surprise, the American captain nevertheless accepted it with a grace that charmed the kindly company, promising that in return, if fortune favored him, he would some day "lay an English frigate at her feet."

It was a daring boast, but in A. C. Buel's biography of Paul Jones it is related how he kept it. Within two years occurred the marvelous victory of the Bonhomme Richard over the Serapis, concerning which the victor wrote the duchess a letter, ending, "The enemy surrendered at thirty-five minutes past 10 p. m. by your watch, which I consult only to fix the moment of victory."

That was a phrase to delight a society that revelled in pretty phrases, and the duchess was amply satisfied. When Paul Jones reached Paris she gave a grand banquet in his honor. Just before it ended he reminded her of her gift and his promise. A servant was sent to his room and returned with a long leather case, which the duchess took amid the exclamations and eager curiosity of the company.

"Your royal highness perceives the impossibility of keeping my promise in kind," explained the knight of the sea, smiling. "The English frigate proved to be a forty-four on two decks, and she is now at Lorient with French colors flying. The best I can do toward keeping my word of two years ago is to place in your dainty hands the sword of the brave officer who commanded her. I have the honor to surrender to the loveliest of women the sword surrendered to me by one of the bravest of men—the sword of Captain the Hon. Richard Pearson of his Britannic majesty's late ship the Serapis."

POSTPONED SESSION OF LOCAL COUNCIL SCHEDULED TONIGHT

Council is scheduled to hold a meeting tonight to take the place of the regular monthly meeting which should have been held last Monday night. There is a vacancy to fill in council, made by the resignation of President H. S. Piersol, but owing to the fact that the place will be filled through the election of another man at the first of March. It is likely that council will not choose a successor to Mr. Piersol.

LOCAL SPECIALTIES WILL BE INTRODUCED

Nightly rehearsals are being held by those who are to take part in "The Deestick Skule," to be given by the Epworth League of the M. E. church at School Hall Friday night of this week. The entertainment is one of the funniest playlets that could be produced and several local specialties will add greatly. The rehearsals are at the M. E. church beginning at 7 o'clock.

INTERESTING SOCIAL

One of the most pleasing fraternal events ever held in Charleroi was that of the Valentine social held last Friday by the Protected Home Circle No. 303 in their hall. The weather was rough, but in spite of this a large crowd was present. The affair was a novel one. Comic valentines were cut in two and placed in envelopes. Each one received an envelope and all had a jolly time matching the valentines. Ladies served the lunch, after which all enjoyed themselves dancing and playing games. The next event to be held by the circle will be a pie social to be held February 25. The proceeds will go for a worthy cause.

To the Citizens of Charleroi, and the friends who have lent me their encouragement in my canvass for the office of Justice of the Peace. I wish now upon the eve of election day to thank them for the courtesies extended me. I now respectfully submit my name to you upon my merits, assuring you that if elected I will give to the people my best efforts and to render to the whole people as I have quoted in my motto, A conscientious service to the whole people direct.

C. G. Collins,
Independent Citizens Candidate for Justice of the Peace. 151t1

Miss Linnie McClure has returned from Elizabeth where she visited friends for a few days.

To the Voters of Charleroi.

I wish to announce my withdrawal as a candidate on the Democratic ticket for council. While I appreciate what my friends have done for me, I do not feel that I could, if elected, consistently serve in the office and such being the case, it is better for me to withdraw in good time. 151t1

Wm. Lambert.

Mrs. R. J. Wilson went to Brownsville this morning where she and her husband are moving.

J. W. Cordes, who has been in St. Louis, Mo., several weeks on business, was home to spend Sunday with his family.

Miss Sarah Braden, who has been spending the past several weeks in Washington with friends, has returned to Charleroi.

Rev. Clifford Joshua, of Cardiff, Wales, preached at the First Baptist church Sunday morning and evening. Rev. Joshua has been in America only about a month and yesterday morning took an active part in Sunday school services for the first time since reaching this country. He was an active worker in the great revival at Wales a few years ago, and on next Sunday morning will tell of his experiences there, having again been engaged to preach.

Mr. and Mrs. G. May Hill and daughter Zita of Homestead spent Sunday in Charleroi the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McDermott of Crest avenue. Mrs. Hill and daughter will visit briefly here with friends.

A WOMAN'S INFLUENCE.

Effect It Produced on Her Husband's Business Affairs.

A delegation of young men lately waited on their employer's wife with the oddest request on record. "You see, madam," said the spokesman, "we want to have a half holiday every Saturday. Now, if you will be particularly nice to Mr. Page for a few days we'll go to him and ask."

"Gentlemen," the lady laughingly interrupted, "do you imply that I do not understand what is due to my husband?"

"Oh, I know all about it, madam," the spokesman went on. "I'm married myself. Things go wrong in the house, and you're tired and cross at breakfast. Then we suffer at the office. You stay up late to chaperon your daughter at a ball, and we have more trouble at the office. You're a bit cross three mornings in succession for one reason or another, and we have a—terrible time at the office."

"You see how the matter stands and how greatly you will oblige us by being more than usually agreeable to Mr. Page for three or four days. The fourth day give him the best breakfast you can—everything that he likes best—and we'll get what we want in three minutes."

"Talk about a woman having no influence in the business! Why, the humor she's in has more effect than a bank failure or a boom in trade."

She thought she ought to be angry, but instead she laughed and agreed to the proposition, and four days later when they waited on the head of the firm he made the closing hour 12 o'clock and said never in the history of the firm had things run as satisfactorily as they had during the last four days.—London Tit-Bits.

The African Elephant.

Shrugging man and, as a rule, fleeing at his approach, the African elephant when attacked often shows fight and is dangerous prey. Kongo specimens have very large ears that even stretch back beyond the neck and cover part of the flank. In color the Kongo elephants are of a grayish blue, almost slate-like tint. No one has even reported seeing specimens of the sacred white elephant of India there. In size Kongo elephants have been killed more than fourteen feet high at the withers and reckoned at more than eight tons in weight. Tusks obtained are sometimes more than 200 pounds in weight and six feet and a half in length.

With the Minstrels.

"Mistah Walkah, wot am de diff'unce 'tween a trav'ler startin' to Tangier an' a plate o' veal hash?"

"I give that one up, George. What is the difference between a traveler starting for Tangier and a plate of veal hash?"

"De one am Morocco bound, an' de udder am half calf."

"Ladies and gentlemen, the celebrated vocalist, Professor Rox de Bots, will now sing that beautiful and touching sentimental ballad, 'Take Your Face Away, Clarence; You Have Been Using a Safety Razor.'"—Chicago Tribune.

Precocity.

"Every time the baby looks into my face he smiles," said Mr. Meekton. "Well," answered his wife, "it may not be exactly polite, but it shows he has a sense of humor."—Exchange.

Hunger or Fame.

"It is a good thing to hunger for fame," remarked the struggling author. "Yes," assented his friend the artist, "if you don't get the fame you are sure to get the hunger."—Chicago News.

BURNING CIGAR STUMP SAID TO BE RESPONSIBLE

Slight Conflagration at Singer Sewing Machine Store Sunday Morning.

A lighted cigar stump thrown in a box used as a cuspidor, at the Singer Sewing Machine office on Fallowfield avenue is supposed to have caused a slight fire Sunday morning, about 1 o'clock. The cuspidor was sitting near the stove, but was in such a position that the fire could not come from it. Smoke was discovered issuing from the place soon after the flames broke out, and Fire Alarm No. 19 turned in. Some firemen arrived on the scene immediately and procuring a Babcock extinguisher, put out the fire. A hole burnt in the floor, a foot or so in diameter, was the only damage.

THE BOTTLE CONJURER.

An Old Time Hoax That Caused a Riot in a London Theater.

In 1748 there appeared in the newspapers of London an advertisement stating that on a certain night a remarkable conjurer would perform in the Haymarket theater. He would, the advertisement ran, borrow a common walking cane from any member of the audience and "thereupon play the music of every instrument now in use." It was also promised that he would take an ordinary wine bottle, place it on a table in the middle of the stage, get into it "in the sight of all the spectators" and sing while in it. In the same issue of the newspaper was a second advertisement announcing the arrival of Signor Capitello Jumpero, "a surprising dwarf no taller than a tobacco pipe," who engaged to perform with and outdo the "bottle conjurer," contorting himself in all manner of shapes and finally "opening his mouth wide and jumping down his own throat." This feat, not without reason, Signor Jumpero described as the "most wonderfulst wonder of all wonders as ever the world wondered at."

The night set for this dual display of "wonderfulst wonders" found the theater packed from roof to pit. But as the time passed and the curtain remained down catcalls and hisses began to be heard. Then a man in the pit stood up and in a calm voice announced that if double prices were paid the conjurer would get into a pint instead of a quart bottle. At once the audience realized that they were being hoaxed. Somebody threw a lighted candle into a box and this was the signal for a riot. Benches were torn up and boxes pulled down, while the timid rushed for the doors, with great loss of wigs, hats, swords and canes. Those who remained, re-enforced by roughs from outside, completely destroyed the interior of the theater and finished up by dragging the scenery into the street, where it was burned in a huge bonfire. Nor was the author of this imposture ever discovered, although it was commonly attributed either to an actor who had been discharged or to a mischievous nobleman bent on winning a wager. New York Tribune.

FOR AGED PEOPLE

Old People Should be Careful in Their Selection of Regulative Medicine.

With advanced age comes inactive bowel movement and sluggish liver. Nature is unable to perform her proper functions and requires assistance. Otherwise, there is constant suffering from constipation and its attendant evils. Old folks should never use physic that is harsh and irritating.

We have a safe dependable and altogether ideal remedy that is particularly adapted to the requirements of aged people and persons of weak constitution who suffer from constipation or other bowel disorder. We are so certain that it will completely relieve these complaints and give absolute satisfaction in every particular that we offer them without personal guarantee that they shall cost the user nothing if they fail to substantiate our claims. This remedy is called Rexall Orderlies.

Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy. They have a soothing, healing, strengthening tonic and regulative action upon the dry mucous lining and the relaxed muscular coat of the bowel. They produce a natural, successive contraction and relaxation of the muscular fibers of the bowel walls, generating a wavelike motion which forces their contents onward and outward; thus simulating nature in perfect bowel movement. They tone up and strengthen the nerves and muscles and restore the bowels and associate organs to more vigorous and healthy activity. They may be taken at any time without inconvenience; do not cause any griping, nausea, diarrhoea, excessive looseness, flatulence or other disagreeable effect. Try Rexall Orderlies on our guarantee: 36 tablets 25 cents, and 12 tablets 10 cents. Remember you can obtain Rexall Remedies in Charleroi only at our store—The Rexall Store. John W. Carroll.

JUDGE M'ILVAINE GRANTS REHEARING ON LICENSES

Breweries of Washington Claim Court was Inconsistent in Rulings

EVIDENCE ABOUT THE SAME

Decisions Still Unchanged—
Every Argument Met with Well Considered Reasons

On petition of the attorneys of the three breweries at Washington that were refused license, Judge J. A. McIlvaine granted a rehearing on the case Saturday afternoon. The breweries were represented by Attorneys T. F. Birch, A. B. Braden and Norman Clark. The points advanced for a reconsideration of the refusals were that the court was inconsistent in its rulings. It was stated that seven wholesalers had applied for license, two of which were granted and five refused, when the evidence was the same in about each case. The attorneys stated that if the court would reconsider its decision and grant licenses to the breweries the latter would "be good," and cut out their sales distributing agencies. It was also inferred that the court had been unduly biased by certain newspaper reports, and that being a total abstainer unconsciously influenced the decisions.

To all these the court listened attentively, and met each and every point with well considered legal reasons. Complaint was also made that the opinion of the court was so drawn that it left no legal points on which an appeal could be made. Judge McIlvaine replied that he would in his final decree give ample opportunity to carry the cases up to the appellate court, and suggested that the three breweries could still withdraw their applications and take out State licenses.

The attorneys replies that there was no profit in this, and stated that heavy losses would be entailed on the investors if the breweries were to remain idle for a year. To this the court replied that investors in brewery properties must know there are laws governing the manufacture and sale of the product, and that if these laws were violated the license privilege was liable to be revoked. A reconsideration of the decree was refused. The application for the Bentleyville brewery was withdrawn with the avowed intention of taking out a State license, and this course will probably be followed by the Independent brewery of Monongahela.

To the Voters of Charleroi.

There has been a report circulated in Charleroi that if I am elected justice of the peace, I would resign in order that another could be appointed. To the voters of Charleroi I wish to say that this report is absolutely false that I am a candidate for myself, and if elected will administer the affairs of said office to the best of my ability and in strict accordance with the law.

Police Make Five Arrests Saturday

Vesta Man Gets Loaded and Tries to Regulate Police Force

There were five arrests made by the police on Saturday night for drunkenness, disorderly conduct, and fighting, the burgess' office being enriched in fines and costs to the extent of $27.52. A man by the name of Hancock from Vesta came to town, and filling up with joy juice, tried to regulate the police force, when his friends were requested to take him home, and as a result was pulled by Chief of Police Albright and Officer Alva Osborne. He was fined $1.00 and costs for disorderly conduct.

FIGHT FOR SCHOOL BOARD

The election Tuesday in Charleroi for the various borough offices bears indications of being somewhat spirited, because of the good men that are out for the various offices. In all possibility the closest contest will be for school director, although the office of justice of the peace, and the seats in council may furnish some warm fights. There are four candidates for office of justice of the peace, which is the most important office to be filled. These are John Jenkins, Chauncey G. Collins, R. P. Fitzgerald and Joseph Foss. Jenkins is the Republican nominee and Fitzgerald the Democrat, while Collins is running Independent and Foss on the Citizens ticket.

For school director G. B. Neelson and Charles Walgren are the Republican nominees and Fred Cooper and N. W. Patton are the Democratic candidates. On account of the prominence of these four men a warm fight is anticipated.

Dr. A. O. Davis and A. H. Furlong are the Republican nominees for council and William Richey is the Democratic nominee. It is a guess as to which two of these will pull out successfully. Wm. Lambert the other Democratic nominee for council has withdrawn.

George Dawson is the Republican candidate for assessor. J. G. Albright is the Republican nominee for auditor and John Jones the Democratic candidate.

RESULT OF A GREAT RACE.
Prophet thinks he can pick the winner in this great popularity contest, yet experts declare that it is utterly impossible to forecast the results of this great race.

In a horse race the "prophet" is always in evidence before the winners are announced. He knows just how it will end and has the chances of each entry figured out to a fraction. After the race is run he is generally conspicuous by reason of his absence. Some people have an idea that certain candidates have The Mail and Mirror prizes "cinched." Experience with scores of similar contests makes one smile when anyone attempts to name the victors this early in the game.

Are you so far behind on the list that you are beginning to lose heart? Are you tempted to sit back and let the ones ahead of you have it this way?

Have you spent one single half day in canvassing for subscriptions and votes? Have you really tried to improve your position. Don't be a quitter. Just make one energetic attempt to get ahead and you will be surprised at the result.

Popularity counts to some extent in getting votes. Hard work counts for much more. Your friends are willing to help you, but they are not going to unless you help yourself. The person who depends on his friends to help him land a prize is likely to get badly left.

New entries can very easily enter the contest today and by a little hard work looking after new subscribers take the lead in the entire contest. Enter today, get busy, and you will be surprised to see how rapidly your score rolls up.

KINNEY TRIAL POSTPONED UNTIL MAY TERM OF COURT

Charleroi Man is Struck by Train

Has Limb Fractured and is Otherwise Wounded About the Body

Stephen Shumer a trespasser on the local division, P. R. R., sustained a fractured leg and a number of bruises about the body by being struck by an engine running light, at Dunlevy Sunday morning. Shumer was working on the tracks, clearing away the snow, when the engine, on a siding, came along. He stepped aside, but not far enough and was struck. He was removed to the Memorial hospital at Monongahela where attention was given. The injury is said not to be serious.

SPORTSMEN WANT QUAIL PROTECTED

Ask Farmers to Assist, and Promises Them Compensation
If They Do So

LAW PERMITS TRAPPING

A movement is on foot among the hunters and sportsmen of Charleroi for the protection of quail during the hard winter season, in which aid has been asked of the farmers and landholders in the vicinity. This has been one of the hardest winters on these game birds that has been known for many seasons, and has been the result of a great decrease in the flocks.

The plan on foot is to have the farmers either trap and feed the quail, or feed them in the open, for which work they will be fully compensated. At present the heavy snow prevents the quail from feeding off the ground and foraging as usual in winter and coveys have been known to starve to death. Farmers are permitted by law to trap and take care of quail during the winter season or are permitted to trap them and place them in charge of sportsmen, for which they are entitled to compensation.

Any farmer or land-holder trapping any quail and not desiring to take care of them will confer a favor upon local sportsmen and be entitled to compensation by communicating the fact to the Mail, or any person feeding quail may by informing the Mail secure proper payment.

BANKS CLOSED ON ELECTION DAY AND FOLLOWING TUESDAY

The Charleroi banks will be closed all day Election Day, and on the following Tuesday, Washington's Birthday. Saturday, the anniversary of Lincoln's birthday, is really a bank holiday, but it was not observed on account of the date falling upon Saturday. It is seldom that the banks are closed two Tuesdays in succession.

Attorney Harry Williams for Defendant Asks for Continuance]

NO OBJECTION IS FILED

Reason for Request is From the Inability of Material Witnesses to be Present

The murder case against Thomas Kinney of Charleroi, who is charged with the killing of William Adams here the first part of December, was this morning continued until the May term of court on account of the inability of material witnesses to be present at this term.

The case was called this morning by the court, whereupon Attorney Harry Williams, representing Kinney, made a motion that the case be postponed until the May term.

He stated as the chief and only reason the fact that material witnesses upon whom there much depended could not appear at this time.

There was no objection upon the part of the Commonwealth, and the case was declared postponed by the court. There are twenty witnesses, upon the case from Charleroi.

PLAN TO TAKE SLED LOAD OF ROOTERS

The second basketball game of the series of five between Brownsville and the Charleroi Colonials for the championship of the upper Monongahela valley will be played at the Brownsville rink on Friday night of this week. It is the intention of the team if the snow is on and sledding is good to go across country, and take a number of rooters with them. Anyone who thus wants to go should notify Manager Riggs, or leave word at the Colonial pool room.

Funeral of Mrs. Carl E. Gibson Held Today

The funeral of Mrs. Carl E. Gibson of Monongahela was held from the late home this afternoon at 2 o'clock, the services being conducted by Rev. C. L. McKee of the Presbyterian church. Interment was in the Monongahela cemetery. I. O. Wycoff and family of Charleroi were in Monongahela this afternoon to attend the funeral.

To the Public.

In view of the fact that the local journeyman barber's union compelled the master barbers of Charleroi to sign a scale formulated by them increasing the price of shaving to 15 cents, and imposing other terms, I desire to state that such proceeding was unwarranted. I had already signed a yearly agreement with Local No. 20 of Pittsburgh for one year, ending May 1. Correspondence with the International secretary reveals the fact that the local union had no right to make such a demand while the other agreement was in existence. Therefore my shop will be conducted the same as heretofore until the other agreement expires.

Voters, Turn Out.

Tomorrow is the municipal election, when officers are elected to administer the borough and school affairs. As the Mail has previously stated, this is important to every citizen within the borough, as the councilmen and school directors elected will levy, collect and disburse jointly in the neighborhood of $80,000 during the ensuing year. This alone should be sufficient cause for every voter to turn out and cast his ballot at the election tomorrow.

Local elections are not held for voters to favor and honor a fellow-citizen who seeks a public office. Instead they are for the purpose of selecting public servants. That being the case it is purely a question of ability, honesty and integrity. These are the qualification the voters of Charleroi should insist upon, and if a full vote is registered the result will be the sentiment of the people, which is the final arbiter in popular government. A small vote does not reflect the will of the people.

A Blessing in Disguise

While it has been the occasion of more or less personal discomfort as well as considerable local inconvenience the heavy precipitation of snow this winter is exactly what was needed throughout the State. It may not be generally known that during the past two years a general drought has prevailed, which has not only seriously affected crops but was beginning to injure the forests. Reports from some sections of the State were to the effect that last summer the moist air had receded from the earth to a greater depth than was ever before known. It will be remembered that the summer of 1908 was unusually dry, and that the fall of snow the succeeding winter was light. It fell on dry ground and went away without rains, so that little moisture was added to the subterranean springs and water currents. Last summer the rain fall while not so light as the preceding summer, was still below the average, and there were no fall rains of any account for the thirsty earth to absorb.

Now, with the heavy rainfalls during the winter, and the unusually heavy fall of snow, the damage caused by lack of moisture will be repaired. Before the snow disappears certain communities may suffer by reason of floods, but the general effect will be beneficial. The snow is a blessing in disguise.

License a Privilege.

The opinion of Judge J. A. McIlwaine written in connection with his license court decisions is a most comprehensive exposition of the license laws governing Pennsylvania. Some of the most salient points deducted therefrom is that a license to dispense intoxicating liquors is a privilege, granted at the discretion of the court, but tolerated by the people of the community in which it is granted, and that the power of the court in this matter is discretionary and not arbitrary. A few of the pertinent features of the opinion are quoted as follows:

"The free and excessive use of intoxicating liquors has long been recognized as injurious to individuals, to society and to the State.

"The judge who presides at a license is given discretion in determining who, if any, shall receive a license from among those who apply for the same. But it is a judicial and not an arbitrary discretion.

"A person who applies for a license as a hotel keeper should have a hotel, it should be hotel in truth and in fact, a public house where strangers and travelers can be comfortably entertained.

"A wholesale dealer's license should not be granted where there is no wholesale trade with retailers and where there are retail license sufficient to supply the retail trade. It is true that one receiving a wholesale dealer's license can sell to consumers, but that business should be merely incidental to the principal business.

Brownsville has been put in the same class as Uniontown, because it has not sporting blood enough to bear defeat in a basketball game without blaming it on the referee.

Throwing snow on roofs is sometimes more dangerous to other people than getting to the right hand side of a trolley sweeper, when it's removing snow from the tracks.

With the Ohio, Monongahela and Youghiogheny rivers all improved, Western Pennsylvania can afford to feel somewhat uppish.

Every time there is a heavy fall of snow, or an unusual storm, a Pittsburgh newspaper is bound to find out that all records are broken for as far back as the oldest employe in the office can remember.

The man whose wife insists upon kissing him ten minutes every morning before he goes to work and every evening when he comes home, ought to be entitled to a divorce and alimony.

Brownsville is going to be the center of the suffrage movement, if it can. To take advantage of time and step on opportunity's forelock it is going to have a wonderful debate on the question, "Why Women Should Vote," or some topic of sufficient interest. We hope they get the front seats filled.

Robert C. Moorehead, and son, Edward Moorehead, druggists at Washington, together with their clerk, Joseph Connors, have pleaded guilty to selling liquor unlawfully. They will receive sentence during the present term of court.

Homemade Ink.

A good ink is made in this way: Bruise half a pound of nutgalls and stand in one quart of water, shaking it now and then, for about four hours. Then add three ounces and a half of gum arabic and when it is quite dissolved three ounces of copperas. To prevent the ink from becoming moldy when kept add three or four drops of creosote. This gives a pleasant-like smell to the ink and does not corrode the pens as chloride of mercury would do.

GREEK MURDERER STILL AT LARGE

Officers Keeping Watch to Ascertain Whereabouts of County Man.

No trace has yet been found of John Marks, the Greek who shot and killed three Italian miners at Shaw mines, near Midway, last Wednesday. Officers in the vicinity of McDonald who were interested in the search believe that Marks and his 15-year-old accomplice, Tony Patcuhey, have succeeded in getting out of the country and are now in Canada. The triple funeral of the victims occurred yesterday, and was attended by a vast crowd of Americans and foreigners.

NORTH CHARLEROI ANTICIPATES GOOD FIGHT FOR OFFICES

Warm Contest Booked for
boring Borough.

There promises to be a nice contest for election to the offices of council, school director and justice of the peace at North Charleroi tomorrow. In council the retiring members are S. A. Walton, who was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of S. L. Woodward, and David Schafer. Mr. Schafer is a candidate to succeed himself.

Those who are out for the places on both the Republican and Democratic tickets are: Council—Republican, David Schafer and John Cope; Democratic—John Meyers and A. T. Linn. School director—Republican, Bowman Horn and I. N. Kibler; Democratic—Anderson Caseber, and W. H. Craft; justice of the peace, R. L. Culbertson, Republican, Lewis Cooper, Democratic.

PAUL JONES' PROMISE.

Our Great Naval Hero and the Duchess of Chartres.

The Duchess of Chartres was an enthusiast in the cause of American liberty and a warm friend of its great naval champion, Paul Jones, whom she nicknamed the "United Knight of the Sea." The duchess was a royal princess and a very great lady, and Captain Jones was a sailor, self educated and the son of a Scotch gardener, but in the exchange of gifts and compliments which, according to the custom of the day in France attended their friendship, he was not to be outshone.

At a luncheon which she gave just before he sailed from France in the Ranger on that famous cruise of his which carried the war to the very shore of Britain it was the good fortune of Paul Jones to share in a conversation touching a French naval engagement in which the grandfather of the duchess had borne a conspicuous part and to defend and explain maneuvers on that occasion, showing a knowledge of every ship and every captain engaged and whirling on the spot the ardent personal adherence of Mme. de Chartres.

At the close of the feast she presented him a valuable watch which had been her grandfather's. Taken by surprise, the American captain nevertheless accepted it with a grace that charmed the countess company, promising that in return, if fortune favored him, he would some day "lay an English frigate at her feet."

It was a daring boast, but in A. C. Buell's biography of Paul Jones it is related how he kept it. Within two years occurred the marvelous victory of the Comboume Richard over the Serapis, concerning which the victor wrote the duchess a letter, ending, "The enemy surrendered at thirty-five minutes past 10 p. m. by your watch, which I consult only to fix the moment of victory."

That was a phrase to delight a society that reveled in pretty phrases, and the duchess was amply satisfied. When Paul Jones reached Paris she gave a grand banquet in his honor. Just before it ended he reminded her of her gift and his promise. A servant was sent to his room and returned with a long leather case, which the duchess took amid the exclamations and eager curiosity of the company.

"Your royal highness perceives the impossibility of keeping my promise in kind," explained the knight of the sea, smiling. "The English frigate proved to be a forty-four on two decks, and she is now at Lorient with French colors flying. The best I can do toward keeping my word of two years ago is to place in your dainty hands the sword of the brave officer who commanded her. I have the honor to surrender to the loveliest of women, the sword surrendered to me by one of the bravest of men—the sword of Captain the Hon. Richard Pearson of his Britannic majesty's late ship, the Serapis."

A Weed That Steals Oysters.

A seaweed has invaded the oyster beds of France and carried off 400,000 oysters. It has carried them off bodily, as a thief would do. The minute seeds of this weed float up the English channel in the current of the gulf stream, they settle on oysters in the Breton beds of Morbihan, Quiberon and Belle Isle, and they grow to the size of a duck's egg. They are full of water, but at maturity the water evaporates and air takes its place. The egg shaped seaweed is then a balloon, and, like a balloon, it lifts its oyster from the bottom and bears it out to sea.

Walking in New York.

Men walk more rapidly in the streets of New York city than in any other city in the world. The average speed during the business hours, according to the most careful calculations possible, is four and one-tenth miles an hour. After sunset the pace drops nearly one mile an hour.—New York Herald.

POSTPONED SESSION

OF LOCAL COUNCIL
SCHEDULED TONIGHT

Council is scheduled to hold a meeting tonight to take the place of the regular monthly meeting which should have been held last Monday night. There is a vacancy to fill in council, made by the resignation of President H. S. Piersol, but owing to the fact that the place will be filled through the election of another man at the first of March. It is likely that council will not choose a successor to Mr. Piersol.

LOCAL SPECIALTIES

WILL BE INTRODUCED

Nightly rehearsals are being held by those who are to take part in "The Deestick Skule," to be given by the Epworth League of the M. E. church at School Hall Friday night of this week. The entertainment is one of the funniest playlets that could be produced and several local specialties will add greatly. The rehearsals are at the M. E. church beginning at 7 o'clock.

INTERESTING SOCIAL

One of the most pleasing fraternal events ever held in Charleroi was that of the Valentine social held last Friday by the Protected Home Circle No. 303 in their hall. The weather was rough, but in spite of this a large crowd was present. The affair was a novel one. Comic valentines were cut in two and placed in envelopes. Each one received an envelope and all had a jolly time matching the valentines. Ladies served the lunch, after which all enjoyed themselves dancing and playing games. The next event to be held by the circle will be a pie social to be held February 25. The proceeds will go for a worthy cause.

To the Citizens of Charleroi, and the friends who have lent me their encouragement in my canvass for the office of Justice of the Peace. I wish now upon the eve of election day to thank them for the courtesies extended me. I now respectfully submit my name to you upon my merits, assuring you that if elected I will give to the people my best efforts and to render to the whole people as I have quoted in my motto, A conscientious service to the whole people direct.

C. G. Collins, Independent Citizens Candidate for Justice of the Peace. 15111

Miss Lillian McClure has returned from Elizabeth where she visited friends for a few days.

To the Voters of Charleroi.

I wish to announce my withdrawal as a candidate on the Democratic ticket for council. While I appreciate what my friends have done for me, I do not feel that I could, if elected, consistently serve in the office and such being the case, it is better for me to withdraw in good time. 15111 Wm. Lambert.

Mrs. R. J. Wilson went to Brownsville this morning where she and her husband are moving.

J. W. Corlies, who has been in St. Louis, Mo., several weeks on business, was home to spend Sunday with his family.

Miss Sarah Braden, who has been spending the past several weeks in Washington with friends, has returned to Charleroi.

Rev. Clifford Joshua, of Cardiff, Wales, preached at the First Baptist church Sunday morning and evening. Rev. Joshua has been in America only about a month and yesterday morning took an active part in Sunday school services for the first time since reaching this country. He was an active worker in the great revival at Wales a few years ago, and on next Sunday morning will tell of his experiences there, having again been engaged to preach.

Mr. and Mrs. G. May Hill and daughter Zita of Homestead spent Sunday in Charleroi the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McDermott of Crest avenue. Mrs. Hill and daughter will visit briefly here with friends.

A WOMAN'S INFLUENCE.

Effect It Produced on Her Husband's Business Affairs.

A delegation of young men lately waited on their employer's wife with the oddest request on record. "You see, madam," said the spokesman, "we want to have a half holiday every Saturday. Now, if you will be particularly nice to Mr. Page for a few days we'll go to him and ask."

"Gentlemen," the lady haughtily interrupted, "do you imply that I do not understand what is due to my husband?"

"Oh, I know all about it, madam," the spokesman went on. "I'm married myself. Things go wrong in the house, and you're tired and cross at breakfast. Then we suffer at the office. You stay up late to chaperon your daughter at a ball, and we have more trouble at the office. You're a bit cross three mornings in succession for one reason or another, and we have a—terrible time at the office."

"You see how the matter stands and how greatly you will oblige us by being more than usually agreeable to Mr. Page for three or four days. The fourth day give him the best breakfast you can—everything that he likes best—and we'll get what we want in three minutes."

"Talk about a woman having no influence in the business! Why, the humor she's in has more effect than a bank failure or a boom in trade." She thought she ought to be angry, but instead she laughed and agreed to the proposition, and four days later when they waited on the head of the firm, he made the closing hour 12 o'clock and said never in the history of the firm had things run as satisfactorily as they had during the last four days.—London Tit-Bits.

The African Elephant.

Showering man and, as a rule, fleeing at his approach, the African elephant when attacked often shows fight and is a dangerous prey. Kongo specimens have very large ears that even stretch back beyond the neck and cover part of the flank. In color the Kongo elephants are of a grayish blue, almost slate-like blue. No one has even reported seeing specimens of the sacred white elephant of India there. In size Kongo elephants have been killed more than fourteen feet high at the withers and reckoned at more than eight tons in weight. Tusks obtained are sometimes more than 200 pounds in weight and six feet and a half in length.

With the Minstrels.

"Mistah Walkah, vot am de diff'ence 'tween a trav'ler startin' to Tangier an' a plate o' real hash?" "I give that one up, George. What is the difference between a traveler starting for Tangier and a plate of real hash?"

"De one am Morocco bound, an' de oddah am half calf."

"Ladies and gentlemen, the celebrated vocalist, Professor Rox de Bota, will now sing that beautiful and touching sentimental ballad, 'Take Your Face Away, Clarence; You Have Been Using a Safety Razor.'"—Chicago Tribune.

Precoctly.

"Every time the baby looks into my face he smiles," said Mr. Meekton. "Well," answered his wife, "it may not be exactly polite, but it shows he has a sense of humor."—Exchange.

Hunger or Fame.

"It is a good thing to hunger for fame," remarked the struggling author. "Yes," assented his publisher, "if you don't get the fame you are sure of the hunger."—Chicago News.

AFTER SUFFERING FOR YEARS

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Park Rapids, Minn.—"I was sick for years while passing through the Change of Life and was hardly able to be around. After taking six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I gained 20 pounds, am now able to do my own work and feel well."—Mrs. E. La Dow, Park Rapids, Minn.

Brookville, Ohio.—"I was irregular and extremely nervous. A physician recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to me and I have become regular and my nerves are much better."—Mrs. R. KINISON, Brookville, Ohio.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials are on file in the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., from women who have been cured from almost every form of female complaints, inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration. Every suffering woman owes it to herself to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

If you want special advice write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for it. It is free and always helpful.

BURNING CIGAR STUMP SAID TO BE RESPONSIBLE

Slight Conflagration at Singer Sewing Machine Store Sunday Morning.

A lighted cigar stump thrown in a box used as a cuspidor, at the Singer Sewing Machine office on Fallowfield avenue is supposed to have caused a slight fire Sunday morning, about 1 o'clock. The cuspidor was sitting near the stove, but was in such a position that the fire could not come from it. Smoke was discovered issuing from the place soon after the flames broke out, and Fire Alarm No. 19 turned in. Some firemen arrived on the scene immediately and procuring a Bannock extinguisher, put out the fire. A hole burnt in the floor, a foot or so in diameter, was the only damage.

THE BOTTLE CONJURER.

An Old Time Hoax That Caused a Riot in a London Theater.

In 1748 there appeared in the newspapers of London an advertisement stating that on a certain night a remarkable conjurer would perform in the Haymarket theater. He would, the advertisement ran, borrow a common walking cane from any member of the audience and "thereupon play the music of every instrument now in use." It was also promised that he would take an ordinary wine bottle, place it on a table in the middle of the stage, get into it "in the sight of all the spectators" and sing while in it. In the same issue of the newspaper was a second advertisement announcing the arrival of Signor Capitello Jumpo, "a surprising dwarf no taller than a tobacco pipe," who engaged to perform with and outdo the "bottle conjurer," contorting himself in all manner of shapes and finally "opening his mouth wide and jumping down his own throat." This feat, not without reason, Signor Jumpo described as the "most wonderfulst wonder of all wonders as ever the world wondered at."

The night set for this dual display of "wonderfulst wonders" found the theater packed from roof to pit. But as the time passed and the curtain remained down catcalls and hisses began to be heard. Then a man in the pit stood up and in a calm voice announced that if double prices were paid the conjurer would get into a pint instead of a quart bottle. At once the audience realized that they were being hoaxed. Somebody threw a lighted candle into a box, and this was the signal for a riot. Benches were torn up and boxes pulled down, while the fluid rushed for the doors, with great loss of wigs, hats, swords and canes. Those who remained, re-enforced by roughs from outside, completely destroyed the interior of the theater and finished up by dragging the scenery into the street, where it was burned in a huge bonfire. Not was the author of this imposture ever discovered, although it was commonly attributed either to an actor who had been discharged or to a mischievous nobleman bent on winning a wager. New York Tribune.

FOR AGED PEOPLE

Old People Should be Careful in Their Selection of Regulative Medicine.

With advanced age comes inactive bowel movement and sluggish liver. Nature is unable to perform her proper functions and requires assistance. Otherwise, there is constant suffering from constipation and its attendant evils. Old folks should never use physic that is harsh and irritating.

We have a safe dependable and altogether ideal remedy that is particularly adapted to the requirements of aged people and persons of weak constitution who suffer from constipation or other bowel disorder. We are so certain that it will completely relieve these complaints and give absolute satisfaction in every particular that we offer them without personal guarantee that they shall cost the user nothing if they fail to substantiate our claims. This remedy is called Rexall Orderlies.

Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy. They have a soothing, healing, strengthening tonic and regulative action upon the dry mucous lining and the relaxed muscular coat of the bowel. They produce a natural, successive contraction and relaxation of the muscular fibers of the bowel walls, generating a wavelike motion which forces their contents onward and outward; thus simulating nature in perfect bowel movement. They tone up and strengthen the nerves and muscles and restore the bowels and associate organs to more vigorous and healthy activity. They may be taken at any time without inconvenience; do not cause any griping, nausea, diarrhoea, excessive looseness, flatulence or other disagreeable effect. Try Rexall Orderlies on our guarantee: 36 tablets 25 cents, and 12 tablets 10 cents. Remember you can obtain Rexall Remedies in Charleroi only at our store—The Rexall Store. John W. Carroll.
